

STATE OF MONTANA

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the month of May is designated as Military Appreciation Month in Montana to honor the brave men and women in the United States military;

WHEREAS, while our military men and women serve – whether deployed on missions or in training – they leave loved ones at home; and

WHEREAS, military spouses are a source of strength, stability, and support for our servicemen and women, managing households and careers of their own while raising their families; and

WHEREAS, being a military spouse is a lifetime commitment to their partner and also to our country – one of honor, duty, and patriotism; and

WHEREAS, in 1984, President Reagan established Military Spouse Appreciation Day, which seeks to recognize the sacrifices military spouses make, both personal and professional, to help their spouse fulfill their duties to our nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greg Gianforte, Governor of the State of Montana, do hereby proclaim May 8, 2021 to be in Montana in honor and appreciation of the spouses of our servicemen and women.

MILITARY SPOUSE APPRECIATION DAY

GREG GIANFORTE
Governor