

STATE OF MONTANA

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, residents of assisted living communities are active members of the larger community, whose contributions are a vital part of Montana's rich history and our Montana identity; and

WHEREAS, assisted living is a critical long term care option for seniors and individuals with disabilities that fosters choice, dignity, and independence; and

WHEREAS, assisted living communities are committed to excellence, innovation, and the advancement of person-centered care; and

WHEREAS, this year's theme of National Assisted Living Week® is "Joyful Moments," highlighting the incredible care provided by essential caregivers and the special memories created in assisted living facilities; and

WHEREAS, during this special week, assisted living communities across the state are encouraged to organize activities and events which celebrate the dedication of staff, the individuality of residents, and the deep connections formed in these settings;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greg Gianforte, Governor of the State of Montana, do hereby proclaim September 11-17, 2022

ASSISTED LIVING WEEK

in Montana to honor the contributions of assisted living communities in providing long term care to America's seniors and individuals with disabilities.
