

STATE OF MONTANA

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, residents of assisted living facilities and the staff who serve them make our communities more vibrant and our state stronger; and

WHEREAS, assisted living is a critical long-term care option for seniors and individuals with disabilities that fosters choice, dignity, and independence; and

WHEREAS, assisted living communities are committed to excellence, innovation, and the advancement of person-centered care; and

WHEREAS, since 1995, National Assisted Living Week® has honored the contributions of assisted living communities in providing long term care to America's seniors and individuals with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, during this special week, assisted living communities across the country are encouraged to organize activities and events which celebrate the dedication of staff, the individual residents, and the deep connections formed in these settings;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greg Gianforte, Governor of the State of Montana, do hereby proclaim September 10-16, 2023,

ASSISTED LIVING WEEK

in Montana to honor the contributions of assisted living communities in providing long-term care to seniors and individuals with disabilities.
