

STATE OF MONTANA

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, first responders are integral to every community across America, showcasing bravery, courage, and dedication when risking their own safety to protect others every day; and

WHEREAS, police officers, firefighters, emergency medical technicians (EMTs), paramedics, 911 dispatchers, and other organizations in the public safety sector selflessly serve the public; and

WHEREAS, first responders are the first line of defense, protecting the public against all threats and emergencies, often offering life-saving care in a time of need; and

WHEREAS, first responders stand ready to come to the aid of the citizens of Montana at all hours of the day; and

WHEREAS, the daily sacrifices that first responders and their families make have an inspirational and enduring impact on all communities across the country;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greg Gianforte, Governor of the State of Montana, do hereby proclaim October 28, 2024

FIRST RESPONDERS DAY

in Montana and encourage all citizens to acknowledge, honor, and celebrate first responders and their impact to our communities across the country.
