

STATE OF MONTANA

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army, founded in 1865, is an international religious and charitable movement motivated by the love of God and practical concern for the needs of humanity without discrimination; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army has faithfully and lovingly performed the service of feeding, clothing and sheltering people, including children and seniors, for 160 years, and nearly that long in Montana; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army acts on behalf of all the people of our state without expecting any thanks, while welcoming community support; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army continues to work on the front lines with our neighbors suffering from a lack of housing, low-income families, and individuals who have found themselves struggling to make ends meet; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army continues to serve the people of Montana by creating new and innovative programs to serve our neighbors in need throughout the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greg Gianforte, Governor of the State of Montana, do hereby proclaim May 12-18, 2025

THE SALVATION ARMY WEEK

in Montana and encourage all citizens to join me in recognizing the steadfast volunteers of the Salvation Army.
