STATE OF MONTANA

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, Montana Health Occupations Students of America, known as Montana HOSA Future Health Professionals, prepares high school students for careers in healthcare through hands-on learning, leadership development, and real-world experience; and

WHEREAS, Montana HOSA strengthens health science education by helping students build technical skills, confidence, and character as they explore opportunities to serve in Montana's healthcare workforce; and

WHEREAS, more than 700 Montana students in grades 9 through 12 participate in HOSA each year, gaining the knowledge and experience needed to pursue careers that support the health and well-being of our communities; and

WHEREAS, Montana and the nation continue to face a significant shortage of healthcare workers, and HOSA encourages and equips students to answer the call to serve in critical health professions; and

WHEREAS, HOSA promotes responsibility, integrity, leadership, and compassion for others, values that strengthen Montana students and the future of healthcare in our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greg Gianforte, Governor of the State of Montana, do hereby proclaim November 2-8, 2025

MONTANA HOSA FUTURE HEALTH PROFESSIONALS WEEK

to encourage all Montanans to recognize and support the students and advisors of Montana HOSA Future Health Professionals.
