

STATE OF MONTANA

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, President Ronald Wilson Reagan, a man of humble background, served the State of California as governor and the United States as president; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan inherited a nation crushed by rampant inflation and high unemployment; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan's sunny optimism and strong belief in the power of the individual revitalized the nation in one of the longest economic expansions in American history; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan's "Peace Through Strength" policy and his commitment to our armed forces protected the United States and prepared the nation to face the challenges of the 20th century; and

WHEREAS, the American people responded to President Reagan's first term by electing him to a second one with support from three-fifths of the electorate and 49 of 50 states, a record unsurpassed in the history of American presidential elections;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greg Gianforte, Governor of the State of Montana, do hereby proclaim February 6, 2026 in Montana and urge the citizens of this state to remember the life and legacy of President Ronald Reagan.
