

STATE OF MONTANA

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, since 1928, the National Future Farmers of America Organization (FFA) has been preparing future generations for leadership, personal growth, and career success in agriculture; and*

WHEREAS, agriculture is the backbone of Montana's economy and the young men and women of FFA play a critical role in ensuring the continued success and innovation of our state's agricultural industry; and*

WHEREAS, FFA provides students with hands-on learning experiences in agricultural education, equipping them with valuable skills in science, business, and leadership that extend far beyond the classroom; and*

WHEREAS, the values of hard work, integrity, and service instilled in FFA members contribute to stronger communities and a brighter future for Montana's agricultural and rural way of life; and*

WHEREAS, National FFA Week provides an opportunity to celebrate the impact of FFA across the country, recognizing the outstanding achievements of its members and the contributions of those who support them;*

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greg Gianforte, Governor of the State of Montana, do hereby proclaim February 21-28, 2026 in Montana to encourage all Montanans to recognize and support the efforts of local FFA chapters in developing the next generation of agricultural leaders.
