

STATE OF MONTANA

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, modern nursing began with Florence Nightingale near the end of the 19th century; and

WHEREAS, nurses work long hours to bring quality care to patients across Montana, meeting new and different needs or challenges at each shift, and play a critical role in our health care system; and

WHEREAS, since the beginning of the pandemic, nurses have been on the frontlines, working around-the-clock to provide compassionate, selfless care to patients; and

WHEREAS, National Nurses Week was first proclaimed by President Nixon in 1974, and National Nurses Day was proclaimed in 1982 by President Reagan to kick off National Nurses Week;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greg Gianforte, Governor of the State of Montana do hereby proclaim May 6, 2022 and May 6-12, 2022

NURSES DAY and NURSES WEEK

in Montana to honor the hard work and dedication of Montana's men and women in nursing.

A blue ink signature of Greg Gianforte, written in a cursive style.

GREG GIANFORTE
Governor