Describe your typical legal areas of concentration during the past ten years and the approximate percentage each constitutes of your total practice (i.e., real estate, water rights, civil litigation, criminal litigation, family law, trusts and estates, contract drafting, corporate law, employment law, alternative dispute resolution, etc).

Criminal Litigation	25%
Real Estate	20%
Trust and Estates	25%
Miscellaneous General Practice	15%
Corporations	10%
Oil & Gas	5%

14. Describe any unique aspects of your law practice, such as teaching, lobbying, serving as a mediator or arbitrator, etc. (exclude bar activities or public office).

I have attempted to reach out and be available to assist younger attorneys with help or just to be a sounding board. In rural Montana there is not a lot of support for the younger attorneys. I benefitted greatly when I was younger by having many older attorney's willing to mentor.

15. Describe the extent that your legal practice during the past ten years has included participation and appearances in state and federal court proceedings, administrative proceedings, and arbitration proceedings.

I appear frequently in lower court criminal matters including trials.

I appear in District Courts in Quiet Title Actions, Guardianships, Probates and miscellaneous Civil Litigation matters.

16. If you have appeared before the Montana Supreme Court within the last ten years (including submission of amicus briefs), state the citation for a reported case and the case number and caption for any unreported cases.

I have not recently.

17. Describe three of the most important, challenging, or complex legal issues you have dealt with or legal proceedings in which you have participated during your practice.

I successfully prosecuted and was involved in what at the time was the largest homicide investigation in the Department of Criminal Investigations history. Eight defendants were convicted. I sought and received permission to seek the death penalty for one defendant from Montana Attorney General's office. The defendant plead guilty to life in prison prior to trial. The investigation and criminal matters took over 2 years to complete.

Conducting a death inquiry that involved the majority of law enforcement officers and Dawson County. An officer was wounded by gunfire and multiple officers returned fire. Fortunately, cameras showed in slow frame by frame analysis that the suspect began firing on officers before they returned fire. The investigation by DCI was exhaustive and all evidence was presented to the jury.

Recently, I was lead counsel and worked with a Denver based firm representing an oil company in multi-party dispute with mineral owners over misallocation of interests and distributions. Multiple oil companies were named as defendants. In determining interests and history of production, we were able to successfully get the action dismissed for my client through summary judgement.

18. If you have authored and published any legal books or articles, provide the name of the article or book, and a citation or publication information.

None.

19. If you have taught on legal issues at postsecondary educational institutions or continuing legal education seminars during the past ten years, provide the title of the presentation, date, and group to which you spoke.

None.

20. Describe your pro bono services and the number of pro bono hours of service you have reported to the Montana Bar Association for each of the past five years.

I provide many hours of free advice to low income and elderly citizens in my area. As a rural attorney this is routine part of my practice. I do not routinely track my hours for these services.

21. Describe dates and titles of any offices, committee membership, or other positions of responsibility you have had in the Montana State Bar, other state bars, or other legal professional societies of which you have been a member and the dates of your involvement. These activities are limited to matters related to the legal profession.

- None.
24. Describe any additional business, agricultural, occupational, or professional experience (other than legal) that could assist you in serving as a judge.

- 1986 – 1990 I worked as a ranch-farm hand in Southwest Kansas to supplement my continued education. I routinely worked cattle in a feeder operation. I also ran tractors, combines and various farm equipment.

G. JUDICIAL PHILOSOPHY

35. State the reasons why you are seeking office as a district court judge.

I believe I bring a vast amount of experience to the bench. I have years as a prosecutor in criminal matters from misdemeanors to the most serious felony cases. I have practiced in multiple areas of civil cases from Family Law, Real Estate, Contracts, some administrative matters, Oil & Gas and Civil Litigation.

I have benefited from practicing before many experienced and talented Judges. I have learned and benefited from their wisdom. I would like to pass the same experience, wisdom and professionalism to other legal professionals.

From my experiences I have learned that for our system to work properly, those of us who have benefited by our predecessors should be willing to give back to our communities by seeking to ensure justice for all citizens.

36. What three qualities do you believe to be most important in a good district court judge?

I believe a District Court Judge should have legal consistency. Attorneys and the public should have confidence that a Judge will apply the law in a fair and impartial manner in all circumstances. Consistency in a Judges decisions assist attorneys in advising their clients which in turn helps with judicial expediency. The citizens in turn have more confidence in the judiciary and the legal system. A lack of consistency creates more appeals, matters going to trial and the lack of confidence that a fair outcome is possible. We must have the publics trust. That trust must start with Judiciary.

I believe a District court Judge should have a well-rounded legal background. District Court Judges hear many different areas of the law and should have a fundamental understanding and experience in handling multiple areas of the law. Having handled different areas of the law provides a judge the understanding of not only the law but the position of the parties and the attorneys. Reading case law and statutes can only provide one facet of the case. In family law for instance, it is important to understand the stresses of parties and dynamics of a family structure that has collapsed. This not only allows a judge to administer decisions in an empathetic manner but hopefully avoiding conflicts in the future. Having multiple legal experience provides confidence in the bench.

Dignity is not often discussed in the consideration of a judge's qualities. When I first started, the judges all had an air of quiet dignity that commanded the courtroom. To often now, I see a casual attitude by judges. As a result, I feel it has led to a lack of professionalism by the attorneys. This in turn has diminished the respect the public has for the legal profession. Having dignity doesn't mean being a tyrant but commanding respect in the court and the community. I would follow in footsteps of my predecessors. In turn I would want the attorneys appearing before the court not only be competent, but I would require a professional manner.

37. What is your philosophy regarding the interpretation and application of statutes and the Constitution?

My judicial philosophy is "judicial conservatism". The Montana and U.S. Constitutions are to be understood by the plain language as stated. The same holds true with statutes and case law. Case precedent must be followed for Judicial consistency. Judges should not use their agendas or preferences in interpreting the law or wielding their authority. Judges are not legislators or activists.

8 MONTANA SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, DAWSON COUNTY

9 STATE OF MONTANA,	)
10 Plaintiff,	)	No. DC-95-018
11 vs.	)	RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S
12 JAMES A. NELSON,	)	MOTION TO QUASH OR
13 Defendant.	)	SUPPRESS EVIDENCE

14 On October 30, 1995, the Defendant, through his attorney, filed
15 a Motion to Quash Investigative Subpoena and, in the alternative, 16 Motion to Suppress Evidence. The Defendant requests that the 17 Investigative Subpoena Duces Tecum used to discover information
18 concerning his blood alcohol level be quashed. In the alternative,
19 the Defendant requests that evidence of his blood alcohol be 20 suppressed because it is an infringement of his Constitutional
21 right to privacy. The State responds by stating that the 22 Investigative Subpoena was issued on December 16, 1994, by this
23 Court and the results were transmitted to the State by January 3,
24 1995. Thus, the Defendant's Motion to Quash is dismally late since
25 the information has been discovered several months ago. The State
26 responds to the Defendant's Motion to Suppress by stating that an 27 Investigative Subpoena was used to obtain the information after 28 showing a compelling interest in gaining the information that outweighs the Defendant's right to privacy.

FACTS

On December 7, 1994, the Defendant, JAMES NELSON, was involved in an unreported motor vehicle accident on Interstate 94. The Defendant was transported to the Glendive Medical Center by Ron Stroh. The Defendant was treated by Dr. Fink at the emergency room. The Montana Highway Patrol investigated the accident and charged the Defendant with Driving a Motor Vehicle While Under the Influence of Alcohol, pursuant to Section 61-8-401, M.C.A.

On December 14, 1994, the State filed a Motion for Investigative Subpoena Duces Tecum with the Seventh Judicial Court. (Exhibit A). The Motion was made pursuant to Section 46-4-301, M.C.A. On December 16, 1994, the District Court granted the State's Motion after finding sufficient cause for the Subpoena. (Exhibit B). On the same date, an Investigative Subpoena Duces Tecum was issued by the District Court. (Exhibit C). The Subpoena was directed to the Keeper of Records at the Glendive Medical Center. As a result of the Subpoena, the State received the blood alcohol results on the Defendant.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

1. Should the Court quash the Investigative Subpoena Duces Tecum?

No, the Defendant has failed to make a timely motion requesting the subpoena to be quashed. The Investigative Subpoena Duces Tecum was issued on December 16, 1994. The Glendive Medical Center produced the requested information on January 3, 1995. The court may quash or modify a subpoena if compliance would be unreasonable.

1 or oppressive upon a timely motion. Mont. Code Ann. Section
2 46-15-106, (1995). In order to quash the subpoena, the Defendant
3 would have had to file their motion prior to the production of the 4 evidence. The State has been in possession of the evidence for
5 eleven months. Therefore, the Defendant's Motion to Quash is moot
6 since the subpoena has already effectuated its desired result.

7 The Defendant fails to directly argue that the subpoena was
8 improperly issued or overly broad in scope. However, the Defendant
9 does argue that the State failed to apprise the Court of the 10 Defendant's privacy rights. The Defendant fails to cite any 11 affirmative duty of the State to anticipate a defendant's potential
12 arguments when requesting a subpoena. The only threshold, which 13 was met, is whether the administration of justice requires the 14 subpoena to be issued. Mont. Code Ann. Section 46-4-301, (1995).
15 The State will not address the scope of the subpoena since the 16 Defendant has failed to raise it as an issue.

17 2. Should the Court suppress evidence gathered through the 18 Investigative Subpoena Duces Tecum?

19 No, the Investigative Subpoena Duces Tecum was issued pursuant 20 to Section 46-4-301, M.C.A. Prior to issuing the Subpoena, the 21 State filed a motion with the court, which was attested, stating 22 the facts and reasons for the subpoena. (Exhibit A). The Court
23 found that the administration of justice required the issuance of 24 the subpoena and granted the State's Motion. (Exhibit B). An 25 Investigative Subpoena Duces Tecum was then issued to the Keeper of 26 Records at the Glendive Medical Center. (Exhibit C). The State
27

1 had a compelling interest in determining if alcohol was involved
2 the Defendant's unreported injury accident. The State does admit
3 the Defendant's allegation that this information was to determine
4 whether or not alcohol was a factor in a car wreck and determine if
5 charges should be lodged against the Defendant.

6 The Defendant asserts that the State failed to properly comply
7 with statutes concerning the production of health care information.
8 Specifically, the Defendant says that the State failed to provide 9 him or his attorney notice of the discovery process, pursuant to 10 Section 50-16-536, M.C.A. The Defendant fails to tell the court
11 that health care information may be disclosed when requested
12 pursuant to an investigative subpoena issued under 46-4-301. Mont.
13 Code Ann. Section 50-16-535(j), (1995). Furthermore, the Defendant
14 neglects the fact that Section 50-16-536, M.C.A., does not apply to 15 Section 50-16-535(j), M.C.A. Therefore, the Defendant and or his 16 attorney are not entitled to notice of the release of health care
17 information made pursuant to an investigative subpoena.

18 Next, the Defendant argues that the information gathered under 19 the subpoena should be suppressed because the Defendant did not
20 consent to the taking of a blood test. It has never been asserted
21 by the State that the blood alcohol test on the Defendant was made
22 under the implied consent law, pursuant to Section 61-8-402, M.C.A.
23 The Defendant sought medical attention for his injuries and availed
24 himself to the Glendive Medical Center. In doing so, the Defendant 25 apparently requested treatment and did sign a form consenting to 26 medical treatment. If the Glendive Medical Center solicited the 27

1 Defendant and subjected him to unwanted medical treatment, he
2 should have a cause of action against them. It is the State's
3 position to believe that when the Defendant requested medical
4 treatment, he thus consented to the blood alcohol test. However,
5 the State refuses to enter into a discussion of potential medical
6 malpractice against the Glendive Medical Center or Dr. Fink.

7 Evidence of the taking, analysis and results of a blood sample
8 taken from a defendant is admissible evidence. State v. Henning,
9 853 P.2d 1223, at 1225, (1993). The Defendant attempts to say this 10 case supports his position that the blood alcohol results should be 11 suppressed. Clearly, a review of this case and especially the 12 concurring opinion support the State's case in this matter. Id.

13 CONCLUSION

14 The Defendant's Motion to Quash Investigative Subpoena and, in 15 the Alternative, Motion to Suppress Evidence should be summarily
16 denied. The State followed the statutory guidelines in obtaining
17 the medical information of the Defendant. The Defendant has failed 18 to state any legitimate reason to suppress the evidence and the 19 Motion to Quash is moot. The Defendant's most compelling arguments
20 are based on misrepresentation of the law and the facts.
21 Therefore, the Defendant's Motions should be denied and this case
22 should proceed to trial.

8 MONTANA SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, DAWSON COUNTY

9 STATE OF MONTANA,)
10)
11 plaintiff,) No.
12 v.) MOTION FOR INVESTIGATIVE
13 JAMES ALAN NELSON,) SUBPOENA
14 defendant.)

15 COMES NOW the State of Montana, by and through Scott W.
16 Herring, Deputy Dawson County Attorney, and hereby requests the 17 issuance of an investigative subpoena. The investigative subpoena
18 is to direct the Keeper of Records at the Glendive Medical Center
19 to provide all medical reports pertaining to the blood alcohol of 20 JAMES ALAN NELSON on December 7, 1994.

21 On December 12, 1994, I received a report prepared by Sergeant
22 J. L. Mahlum of the Montana Highway Patrol, alleging that JAMES
23 ALAN NELSON was involved in an unreported injury automobile
24 accident, and the Defendant was transported to the Ron Stroh
25 residence, whereby Mr. Stroh then transported the Defendant to the 26 Glendive Medical Center. At the Glendive Medical Center, the 27
28

1 Defendant received emergency room treatment from Dr. Fink.

2 On December 10, 1994, Sergeant Mahlum visited the Defendant at
3 the Ron Stroh residence and the Defendant informed Sergeant Mahlum
4 that he had a couple of drinks at the Beer Jug prior to the 5 accident. The Defendant also indicated that he did not remember
6 the accident, but remembers going to a trailer house and the Ron
7 Stroh residence.

8 On December 12, 1994, Sergeant Mahlum visited with Dr. Fink at 9 the Glendive Medical Center. Dr. Fink informed Sergeant Mahlum
10 that the Defendant received injuries to his lower jaw, and was 11 concerned about the lack of pain in association with the injuries.
12 Dr. Fink ordered a blood test for the purpose of determining a BAC
13 level of the Defendant, but declined to inform Sergeant Mahlum of 14 the BAC results. Dr. Fink did state that the results would partly 15 explain the lack of pain for the Defendant. While in the emergency
16 room, the Defendant was unable to recall where his vehicle was or 17 if he was in fact involved in an accident.

18 Because of the above, it appears that I have a duty and the 19 administration of justice requires further investigation into the 20 unreported accident and whether the Defendant was in fact under the 21 influence of alcohol during the accident. Information obtained
22 from the Glendive Medical Center may assist the State in further
23 investigation.

24 DATED this 14TH day of December, 1994.
